Save When You Purchase Lab-Grown Diamonds!

Lab-grown diamonds are created using advanced technology which replicate the natural method of diamond formation, giving them the same characteristics of natural ones, both in strength of material and sparkle. All of our lab-grown diamonds are certified and are purchased from suppliers who follow internationally recognized environmental standards.

When searching for lab-grown diamonds on our website, you can narrow your search to include the following features:

As-Grown Lab-Grown Diamonds - Indicates a lab-grown diamond which has been certified to be 'as grown', meaning no post-growth treatment or color enhancement has been performed on the diamond. Major gemological labs, including IGI and GIA, have added this notation to their lab-grown diamond certification, similarly to how it's been noted on Natural diamond certificates for years.

Certified Sustainability Rated Diamonds - A Sustainability Rated Diamond is a diamond from an accredited laboratory grown diamond production operation that has been evaluated against five pillars of sustainability achievement and is found to be in full conformance with the requirements of the SCS-007 Jewelry Sustainability Standard. Certificates can be obtained through H&S or directly at SCS Global Services.

Why buy our diamonds?

Hoover and Strong has partnered with some of the strongest Diamond Site Holders in the world in order to provide you with the best quality diamonds at the best prices!

We understand that tight calibrated diamonds are needed to create beautiful engagement rings with smooth and uniform settings. When jewelers provide their own diamonds to be set in our products, 75% of the time they are not matching in size. This causes delays because the jeweler has to send in more stones.

You can avoid the headache and time delay by using our diamonds instead of providing your own. We offer a large selection of melee diamonds in many qualities and categories. This includes Harmony Recycled melee, Canadian Origin melee, Signature Premium Cut melee, and Lab Grown melee. You can choose the perfect diamonds quickly and easily on our website.
